

Letter of Reference for Kathryn Purviance

May 30, 2020

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Eva Li and I am the Primary School Principal at Shanghai Liaoyuan Bilingual School (LYBS), an IB world school. I have been at LYBS for one year. Before that, I was working at other IB international schools in China, as an IB Chinese teacher and Administrator. Meanwhile, I am also working for the IBO as a school visit team member and IBMYP workshop leader.

I have known Katy as a colleague and employee during the past year. Katy teaches English for additional language learners in Primary Department of LYBS. I have had the pleasure of observing Katy in her classroom teaching and have written her staff appraisals over the past year. Katy is an excellent teacher who has got great depth in her subject knowledge as well as in the international curriculum. She always teaches by her enthusiasm, creativity and charisma. She is very good at inspiring her students and using a variety of teaching approaches in class, especially in doing differentiation teaching to meet each student's learning needs.

Katy is also a flexible and temperate colleague to work with. She is an open-minded and caring person as she is always willing to help others whenever needed. The LYBS Community has been very lucky to have her.

Please let me know if there is any more information I can provide or specific practices that you would like me to highlight.

Sincerely,

Eva Li
Primary School Principal
